Sexton grad receives first Hollis scholarship

Brothers For Life Inc. presented its first Robert D. Hollis V Memorial Scholarship award May 26 to Crystal Stanley, who graduated this spring from Sexton High School.

Stanley maintained a 3.2 grade-point average in honors courses and excelled in athletics on the track team. She is also involved in several community service projects and plans to major in physical therapy in the fall at Central Michigan University.

BFL, a locally based nonprofit organization, was founded by a group of young men to promote and provide positive behavior throughout the community. BFL established the Hollis scholarship to honor a graduating senior from Sexton High School who exemplifies progressive academic achievement as well as exceptional character. This year's scholarship award is a computer.

To inquire about future projects and activities by BFL Inc., contact the group at brothers4life@mail.com or P.O. Box 70145, Lansing, MI 48908.

BFL officers are Kevin Hollis, president; Andre Tyus, vice president; Reginald Rieder, treasurer; and Carlas Quinney Jr., secretary.
